If an individual terminates their employment with the Board and is then rehired within 1 year of their original termination, the Board shall obtain an Offence Declaration upon the date of rehire. ### Emergency Provisions

In exceptional circumstances it may be necessary for an individual to begin employment with the Board before an acceptable criminal background check is collected. In such circumstances, the Board will require the individual to submit an Offence Declaration, pending submission of the acceptable criminal background check.

Before any agreement is made, the approval of the Executive Officer of Human Resources is required and a binding agreement shall be entered into between the employee and the Board, ensuring that the verification will be provided without delay. The agreement will preserve the Board's right to revoke the offer of employment, and dismiss the employee, should the information provided by the employee prove to be false or misleading in any respect, or if the background check is determined to be unacceptable.

Retention of Documents

The Board shall retain an original or a true copy taken from the original criminal background check. Completed criminal background checks and offence declarations will be filed in a separate and secure location in accordance with Regulation 521/01.
