

THE FUTURE OF WORK: RAISING THE CHILD OF TODAY AND THE ADULT OF TOMORROW

Informed parents have the opportunity to motivate their teenager, and stay one step ahead.

As the world gets more complicated all we want to do is protect our children. And we know they will mature into the adults & citizens of tomorrow.

In this interactive presentation, you will:

- UNDERSTAND how automation will affect the jobs of 2030
- EMPOWER your child to make positive transitions
- LEARN about mental models and decision tools
- CREATE the opportunity to create good communication in your home
- UNDERSTAND THE CHALLENGES AND THREATS

YOU HAVE THE POWER TO EMPOWER

Informed parents have the power to help guide their children through their teen years and make an effective transition into their new world.

Learn to watch for new developments.

Teach your child to develop the skills that will help them in the Future of Work.

Encourage Resilience.
