SCHOOL NAMING AND RENAMING

1. OBJECTIVE

The Board of Trustees (the 'Board') has a duty under the Education Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.2, at subsection 169.1(a.1) to promote a positive school climate that is inclusive and accepting of all pupils.

Pursuant to this authority, the Board has assumed responsibility for approving the names of new and consolidated schools, and renaming existing schools as required, in accordance with the Board Governance Procedure -- School Naming and Renaming.

The Board is committed to ensuring fairness and transparency in school naming through consultation with students, staff and the community.

2. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Proposed school names must:

- a. Reflect a positive image for the Halton District School Board ("HDSB");
- b. Be distinct from other HDSB and neighbouring board school names;
- c. Consider equity, diversity and inclusion in the school community; and
- d. Be secular in nature.

Submissions for proposed school names may:

- a. Reflect the history, geography, local environment, culture or traditions of the community;
- b. Reflect the diversity of the region and honour Indigenous lands;
- c. Honour a renowned person of historical significance to Halton;
- d. Honour a person whose contribution to society or humanity is recognized and valued across Canada;

Consideration will not be given to proposed school names which include:

- a. Names of current HDSB employees;
- b. Names of corporations or products; and
- c. Names of any person currently holding a publicly elected office.
