

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Janice Makokis is a legal scholar, lawyer, mother and Indigenous consultant.

Janice assists both Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples to break down stereotypes and identify colonial systems of the past that are still in place today that have shaped the outcomes for First Nation communities.

HDSB students and staff are invited to attend the Human Rights Symposium to engage in vital conversations and challenge our thinking.

Thursday, Dec. 9 - Friday, Dec. 10, 2021

This will be a virtual event. No registration required.

For more information,
email symposium@hdsb.ca or visit
hdsb.ca (search: Human Rights Symposium)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Spencer West is an international speaker, content creator, bestselling author, world change warrior/activist and social media influencer.

After losing both legs from the pelvis down at the age of five due to a genetic disease, Spencer tackled challenge after challenge, learning to navigate a world set against those with disabilities.